++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Staying dry and settled this weekend.

Today:
A foggy start in places and perhaps remaining foggy throughout the whole day across Cheshire and Merseyside. Otherwise, a cloudier day for many than on Friday, although some sunnier areas are likely, particularly across Cumbria. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Tonight:
Low cloud, mist and fog extending to more of the region overnight. Clearer skies in places, particularly across Cumbria and over the higher parts of the Pennines. Turning locally frosty. Minimum temperature -3 deg C (27 deg F).

Sunday:
Similar to today with low cloud, mist and fog for most areas, this locally persisting all day. Pennine regions and Cumbria may see some sunshine. Feeling rather chilly. Light winds. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Remaining dry and settled. Many areas cloudy at first but some sunshine is likely, especially on Tuesday and Wednesday. Frost and fog in places overnight and feeling increasingly cold.
